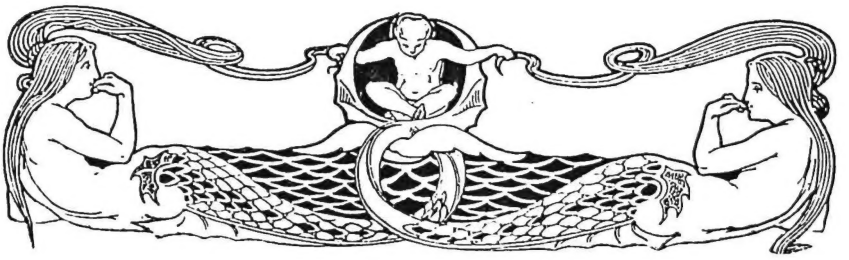
THANK YOU

We want to thank everyone who participated in the 4th of July demo in Woodland Park. It was a great success, and everyone enjoyed it. Thanks!

Lord Lothar vom Bergenwald
Lady Lydia of the Pines



Unto the populace of the Barony of Dragonsspine do Lord Demetrios and Lady Melissa, Vicar and Vicaress of Dragonsspine, send Greetings and Felicitations and a request for assistance.

At Arquelle's Quest for the Flaming-o, Lady Elizabeth Wigglesworth of Kirton, Wimble Pursuivant, told us that she is putting together another volume of the Outlandish Precedence to list all those who have won contests or any other non-award recognition, including Warlords and Defenders. We know of some names to send her, but no one could possibly remember them all. We ask that those of you who have received such honor let her or us know. We also ask that those who remember such things (especially autocrats and judges) to let her or us know. The information needed would be: SCA name, what recognition recieived, approximate date &/or event recieved, or as much of the above as possible. We are especially in need of information from the dim reaches of history, and would appreciate any possible sources of Baronial history.

You may write Lady Elizabeth at the following address, or we would be glad to pass any information collected on to her:

Yours in service to the Barony,

HARVEST TOURNEY IN DRAGONSSPINE

Once again the Barony of Dragonsspine will hold its annual Harvest Tourney. There will be a heavy weapons list and an Arts and Sciences competition/demo. You can enter the competition or merely exhibit your items. The winner of the list and the arts competition will each receive prizes. The highest placing Dragonsspinian in the arts competition will become the Baronial Champion for the year. There will be a Germanic style feast of lentils with sausage, sauer kraut with spare ribs, bread and butter, apple drink (unless you B.Y.O.B.) and Selene's Schaum Torts. Same site as Crown Tourney which is 2 weeks later.

WHAT: Dragonsspine's Harvest Tourney
WHEN: Saturday, September 23, 1989
WHERE: Sallie Bush Community Hall in Green Mountain Falls (site of Candlemas, Courterier's, etc.) -- see map

HOW MUCH: Site - $3.00
Feast - $4.50 in advance (by Sept. 15)
- $6.00 at the door (before noon)
children ages 6 thru 12 half price on everything

ARTS & SCIENCES AT HARVEST TOURNEY

There will be an Arts & Sciences Competition/Demo and the Dragonsspine Champion of Arts & Sciences will be chosen at Harvest Tourney on September 23rd. Everyone is invited to enter or (if they prefer not to enter) to bring items for display, or both! Let's see what everyone's done, or is doing (mostly completed things are OK.) There are some basic categories, but others may be opened if there are enough entries for them. The basic categories and some of the categories they may contain are (in no particular order):

I. Metalworking and leatherworking jewelrymaking, armoring, metalwork, leatherwork.
II. Costuming
periods, regions, accessories, design.
III. SCA-related writings research papers,how-to articles, short informational articles.
IV. Calligraphy and Illumination award scrolls, quotes, calligraphy, illumination, styles.
V. Performance
vocal, instrumental, storytelling, eastern dance, western dance.
VI. Miscellaneous
woodworking, brewing, vintning, herbalism, painting, pavillion design, pottery, needlework, textiles, banner making, mapmaking, lacemaking,...

Entries will be due by 2pm, except performance entries, who will present their entry that evening (see next Meiassis or call Melissa (591-5281) for more info or in case of possible time conflict.) If you're not sure what something should be entered in call Melissa for help. Each item may be entered in multiple categories, but only one category's score will be counted for the championship.Questions? Call Melissa. The only documentation required is a description of what the item is and any part of the entry not done by the entrant. Group entries should include a description of what was done by who if they are to be counted as part of a championship attempt, in which case only a partial score (based on their work) will be counted, unless their work is able to be judged separately.More documentation is encouraged. Please bring items you've made, or if you happen to have things someone else has made, bring them too! Let's have a display (including entries) of the wonderful and beautiful work SCA folk can do!

AN ADVENTURE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Greetings unto the populace of the realm and beyond. House Wanderlust of al-Barran shall be providing a workshop, feast and tournament to be held Saturday and Sunday, September 16 and 17, 1989. Our intention is principaly to make merry in the Arabic tradition and to teach others of the arts and customs of our adopted culture.

On Saturday at the Armenian Cultural Center, 111 Pennsylvania, S.E., we shall offer classes in Near Eastern music and dance to be followed at eventide by a Hafla with traditional Arabic cuisine. A Prize Backgammon Tournament shall also be held during that day. Anyone wishing to entertain our guests with song, dance or lore may do so during the feast. There will be a prize for the best Middle Eastern tale. Music, dancing and universal revelry will follow with contests including best "shimmy".

For your information and acquisition, there shall be a library, costume patterns for reproduction and vendors of Near Eastern goods. Anyone interested in vending may do so as long as the merchandise is of Eastern nature.

Two Prize Tournaments, one for all who attended the Hafla and one for those who entertained at the Hafla, shall be held the following day at Hyder Park commencing at noon.

We sincerely hope that you will join us in our quest. Salaam.

GRAND RUSTIC III

Fighters, fencers, and archers - the incipient shire of Glen Ora challenges you to a contest again, to see who can be the Iron Lord! or Lady! On August 26-27, we are holding Grand Rustic III.

We have fun and games planned for all, some guaranteed to get you dirty. (Bring a change of clothes for the feast.) The Iron Lord competitors will participate in fighting or fencing, archery, knife and star, muckle coo shotput, duck and geese quarterstaff melee. (Rumor has it the ducks and geese are arming themselves!) This is definitely a wet site, plenty of camping and running water, but due tp drought, no open fires!

There is a feast of gargantuan proportions planned, including beef burgundy, duck in currant sauce, and, of course, our legendary salad bar. A Sunday morning breakfast will be served and sandwich fixings and feast leftovers will be put out Sunday afternoon. Also we will again be holding the auction for the benefit to the Kingdom so please bring items to donate.

Fees are the same as last year, $2.00 per person site, $7.00 feast, smalls under 12 half price, under 6 free. $3.00 site fee for those who just come up for the day. We are limiting the number of feast reservations to 100, due to site limitations, so get your reservations in early as there may not be reservations at the door. If available at the door fees for feast are $10.00 adult, children half price. Make all checks out to SCA Glen Ora.

To Glen Ora - Take I-25 to I-80, head east 20 miles. Take the Hillsdale exit. Follow signs and head east 2 miles, turn left on County Road 142 for 5 miles, go around big curve in road (SLOW DOWN) and site is big green house after the 25 mph sign.

Camping will start the night of the 25th.

General Autocrat: Laird Andrew MacKay, c/o Carig Nelson, 4217 Main Street, Hillsdale, WY 82060 (307)547-3557.

Feast Autocrat and Reeve: Lady Amarantha Randolph, c/o Denise Richardson, 4231 Main Street, Hillsdale, WY 82060 (307) 547-3557.

War Report

OUTLANDS vs ATENVELDT

"I'm a Newbee, this is my first event and they stuck me on the gate."
/Spoken by the Troll/

"We're driving through Wolf Creek Pass thinking, 'What a great forest to have a WAR in', then we dropped 1,500 feet into the scrub brush and said, 'Can't these New Mexicans have an event without jumping over cacti?'"
/Said by anyone who drove Highway 160 through the Pass/

We encountered the most outstanding Field Herald we will probably ever hear (unfortunately, no one remembers his name!). But, he was clearly audible ¼ mile down the road and by the time he reached our encampment, we had the announcement memorized. A truly good Field Herald is hard to find, and so we would meet him on the road, applauding and cheering until he blushed to his hairline. Once found, a good Field Herald should be appreciated.

"You mean I walked two miles down a dirt road, in the dark, looking for a porta-potty and there was one 50 yards from where we pitched the tent?!!"
/Anonymous/

"The Outlands have more fighters than we do."
/Atenveldt quote before the first battle/

"Do we have to fight the Bridge Battle on the real bridge? If we do, we might really drown."
/Often repeated by most armored fighters/

During the Champion Battle, 15 Outlandish Knights put up a beautiful shield wall against 15 Aten Knights. At 'Lay On', Atenveldt charged the shield wall. Our Outlandish Knights splintered, fighting as individuals and got their butts kicked in less than 10 minutes.
/There is a lesson to be learned here/

"Haroun, Haroun, Haroun ..."
/Chant during a portion of the unbelted Champion Battle/

"Look at that guy in the bird armor and the one with the flags on his pole arm --who are those guys?"
/Overheard from two Caidan onlookers/

Spectating from the side of the ravine during these battles was like having stadium seating and one of the best vantage points I've ever had. To find Lord Haroun all one had to do was locate Baron Lambert's flags.

"In the three battles on Saturday, he killed 4 or 5 people, at a time, with one fell swoop of his axe."
/Comment on Lord Maelmardane's fighting/

"This is pathetic. Somebody give me a stick so I can go down there and put Haroun out of his misery."
/Quote from Lord Mordrake as Haroun crawled (sans legs) from one end of the field to the other/

"All I could see was dusty helms and glistening (sweaty) faces."
/Said by Water Bearer/

The dust continued to fly and, when all were tired and dead (at least once), the Kingdom of the Outlands had taken 3 out of 3 of the WAR points available for the day -- HUZZAH!

"I'm too old a man too be carrying around this heavy armor. I should be out looking at bare midriffs."
/Baron Sir Douglas as he trudged homeward from battle/

War Report (Lady Dovita) -cont.

"Only al-Barranians are allowed to wander."
/Quote by 'roaming' Dragonsspinians/

And the party commenced. We seven Dragonsspinians did not start to roam until well after 10:00pm. People from all Shires, Baronies and Kingdoms were seeking out their comrades. Many had worn plastic armor onto the field, but nothing as nice as Dragonsspine creates. Others came to revere Baron Sir Olaf's beautiful helm (it travelled with us but Bear Ron stayed home!) and the rest just came to swap WAR stories.

"No, we're not Caertheans -- we're from Hawk's Hollow."
/Chorus from Hawk's Hollow over a case of mistaken identity/

"What did you say -- where are you from?"
/Spoken by the Feast-O-Crat to a Dragonsspinian who offered to help out/

"Your daughter started a food fight at High Table."
/Baron Lambert to Dovita on the whereabouts of her child/

"My Lady, Susan, is a Saint."
/Lord Needham missing his wife/

A small band of mixed company into the dark of night, seeking the 'wild and crazy' Crimson Co., only to find them in sleeping bags.

"Eat your shorts!"
/Statement made by Lord Mordrake to Sir Conrad as he heralded 'Court in the Ramada in about one hour', in reference to the rude awakening and the Field Herald's attire/

"We're going to romp and stomp and kick Trelon's butt."
/Sung by Outlands as they journeyed into battle/

"I concede my defeat. It's hot, we have a long ways to drive and we don't want to fight anymore."
/King Trelon after the Outlands had won 4 out of 5/

The next battle was fought for the Queen's honor by the Defenders of the Stag's Blood. The Corsairs had jostled Queen Layla, offending her, and three minutes later (if that) the rude treatment of Her Majesty had been avenged -- HUZZAH!

"War is no place for women or children."
/Comment by Master Gunvaldt/

"I didn't know he was the King (of Atenveldt) until after we killed him."
/Milord Ja'Far to Lord Haruon/

The Atens may not have wanted to fight, but the Outlands did -- so they fought each other. Killing from behind, and (unable to tell which army they were on because they all had green tape on their helms) often killing their own men.

"Alright, I've been dead the last three times somebody killed me in this battle. I'm just trying to get off the field, okay?"
/Anonymous/

"I'm glad we won the WAR -- I already sent my letter to the Outlandish Herald."
/Quote from King Johann/

"I can't fight in air I can't see."
/Spoken by a true member of Caid/

And when all was said and done, at least 5,000 fighters were killed by both armies over the course of the two day battle. Never mind that there were only 160 of them --my how these fighters do brag! Long Live the Outlands-- may it never br defeated!

ARTS AND SCIENCES ISSUE

The October issue of the Meiassis will be an Arts and Sciences issue. Have an old article lying around? Do you know how to do something that people have been asking you about? We're looking for articles! Under 3 pages is preferable, but I'll gladly help you shorten anything longer. I'll even be glad to help you write an article if you have trouble with getting it into words. Articles for the issue are due by Sept. 23, the date of Harvest Tourney and the Arts and Sciences competition (hint,hint.) If you want help with the writing, please let me know by at least a few weeks earlier. If it will need typed (or retyped) please get it to me by Sept. 16th. Please give articles to Duchess Selene or me.

THE FIRST ANNUAL TOTALLY UNOFFICIAL UPPER OUTLANDS REGIONAL
FENCING AND ARCHERY COMPETITIONS

Sept. 2-3-4
Labor Day Weekend

Are you unhappy because there's always >>ANOTHER WAR<< somewhere far away and you are left with nothing to do over the Labor Day weekend?

Have you been wishing that there was a really FUN event closer to home?

 THIS IS IT ******

This is to be a weekend of Fencing and Archery (and a lot of other things) which will be sponsored by the various Baronies, Shires, and Cantons of the Upper Outlands so that it will be a truly Regional Event, not just another local production.

FENCING ARCHERY CROSSBOW SHINAI

BARDIC CIRCLES QUESTS CAMPING

And - if you have anything that you want to sponsor - just contact the autocrat. Get your group involved. Remember, this is a REGIONAL event - WE NEED YOUR INPUT.

A HUNT BREAKFAST will be served on Sunday Morning. $4.00/adult, $2.00/child - Get your reservations in early because Master Robin Vinehall will be the chef.

This glorious three-day weekend of fun and frolic in the Upper Outlands is to be held at our very own Windhover Campsite (Boulder CO). -- $2.00 per person site fee -- Come early (Friday evening), stay late (Monday evening).

REMEMBER -- Bring your own water - bring sunscreen - bring insect repellant - bring a friend.

Crown Tourney Notes

To the Populace of Dragonsspine:

As you know by now, we are hosting the Crown Tourney of the Outlands, Oct, 7 and 8. The site is the Sallie Bush Community Center in Green Mountain Falls. For those who want to help here's your chance.

We still need a clean up crew chief to gather and coordinate volunteers for the post-Crown clean up.

For those who want to volunteer to help in the kitchen, contact the feastocrat Lady Brilliana.

The decorating theme for the feast is a medieval hunting lodge. We're asking everyone to bring banners, pennants, etc. Contact Countess Beatrix to volunteer your help. She is also coordinating crash space.

For those of you who want to show off your talents in the bardic areas, the early part of the evening will be 'European' bardic style with instrumental music, storytelling, poems, singing, a SHORT mummers play. Later on, we venture to the more exotic. (Don't worry, Naval Academy, you will be on before Closing Court.) For those of you who wish to perform, contact Lady Liobsynde. There will be a program written up, so by the later part of September, you will need to tell the title or type of entertainment, the person(s) performing, and approximate length.

There are some things that need to be calligraphed To volunteer help, contact Lord Demetrios.

If our crafts people wish to volunteer prizes, please feel free.

Thank you,
Liobsynde, Autocrat
